Terms and conditions subject to which any of the flight coupons (hereinafter referred to as "this ticket") are issued to and accepted by the passenger(s).

1. The Companies reserve the right without notice to substitute any aircraft or other means of transport either before the departure of the flight or at any intermediate airport, to alter or omit any advertised stopping place, and to despatch the aircraft before or after the date or hours advertised or announced for its departure. All the conditions of this ticket shall extend to carriage by substituted aircraft or other means of transport.
2. The Companies reserve the right at any time to cancel any flight or, whether the scheduled flight on which the passenger or goods were booked takes place or not, to cancel any ticket or booking of any passenger or goods or to carry the passenger for portion only of any booked flight and the Companies shall not under any circumstances be under any liability to the passenger for failure to carry him at the booked or scheduled time or at all.
3. Times of arrival and departure are not guaranteed. The passenger must be ready at the Airport or other place of departure at the time stipulated or advertised otherwise the passenger's seat may be forfeited. Refunds and cancellation fees will be made and charged by the Carrier in its absolute discretion.
4. If in the opinion of the Pilot, the aircraft cannot be safely landed at any airport, passengers for such airport may be landed at the next practicable airport of call and will be entitled to be returned to the airport of original destination by the first aircraft of the Companies having space available. Passengers must bear their own expenses while waiting for their flight back, and the Companies shall not be liable to the passengers for any loss, damage or expenses of any kind arising howsoever from such overcarriage or delay.
5. The Companies are not common carriers, and reserve the right to refuse to carry any passenger, baggage, or goods without assigning any reason therefor. The passenger shall comply with the Air Navigation Act 1920-1966 and all Regulations, Orders and instructions issued or made in pursuance thereof and with the conditions of this ticket and with the terms of any notice exhibited in the aircraft with the instructions of the Companies and their officers, and shall be responsible for any damage or loss occasioned by his failure to do so. In particular, the passenger shall not carry either on his person or in his baggage or goods any alcoholic liquor, matches, explosives, volatile spirit or other goods of a dangerous, inflammable or offensive nature without notice to and consent of the Companies. The passenger must not enter or remain in any aircraft and may be removed therefrom while he is in the opinion of any officer of the Companies in breach of any of the provisions of the said Act, Regulations, Orders or instructions. In the event of the passenger being required not to embark or to disembark from the aircraft under the provisions of this condition the Companies shall not be under liability to such passenger of any kind whatsoever.

6. The passenger and his baggage are carried subject only to the liability imposed on the Companies by the Civil Aviation (Carriers' Liability) Act, 1959 (as amended) of the Commonwealth of Australia or by the applicable Act of any Australian State or by these conditions. The liability of the Companies whether arising out of a contract of carriage to which any of the said Acts applies or is limited to a sum or sums not exceeding: (a) in respect of death or of injury to the passenger $100,000 (b) in respect of registered baggage $900 (c) in respect of baggage not registered $90. Subject to the foregoing and to any other conditions imposed by any of the said Acts, the Companies accept no responsibility for damage of any kind whatsoever (including death, injury, delay or loss) arising out of, or incidental to the carriage or any services ancillary thereto (including embarking and disembarking and the transfer of the passenger and his baggage to or from any airport, taking off or landing place) whether or not such damage be due to negligence on the part of the Companies, their servants or agents or otherwise howsoever, and the passenger for himself and his executors, administrators and dependants expressly renounces all claims against the Companies in respect thereof (other than claims made pursuant to the provisions of any of the said Acts) whether they may be due to negligence on the part of the Companies their servants or agents or otherwise howsoever; notwithstanding anything herein contained the Companies will be under no liability for loss of or damage to registered baggage occurring more than 12 hours after such baggage became available for collection or for loss of or damage to any baggage resulting from the inherent defect, quality or vice of the baggage.
7. The Companies may arrange with any other person, firm or corporation to undertake the carriage hereby contracted for, or service ancillary thereto (including the transportation of the passenger and his baggage to or from any airport or taking off or landing place) or any part thereof, and the provisions of Condition 6 hereof shall (mutatis mutandis) apply to such person, firm or corporation its servants or agents whilst in the course of undertaking of any such carriage or services as though he, it or they were the Companies.
8. This ticket is available for use within 12 months of date of issue only. Wheresoever this ticket may have been issued, these conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Australia and any Australian State.
9. In these conditions the expression 'the Companies' shall mean and include Ansett Transport Industries (Operations) Pty. Ltd., their servants, agents and employees and any person, firm or corporation with whom any of those companies may have made arrangements pursuant to Condition 7 hereof, and his or its servants, agents or employees and the expression 'the passenger' shall mean the passenger to whom this ticket is issued, or who is carried by virtue of the issue thereof. Words imparting the singular or plural number or the masculine or feminine gender shall where the context permits, include the plural or singular number or the feminine or masculine genders as the case may be.

Cabin Baggage Limits

In accordance with Australian Government regulations, and for the safety and comfort of all passengers, it is necessary to limit the size and weight of cabin baggage. Each passenger may carry:

– ONE brief case or small overnight bag not exceeding Width 23cm Height 34cm

Length 48cm

AND

– ONE softsided (non-rigid frame) suitpak or garment bag not exceeding the following dimensions when UNFOLDED
Thickness 11cm Width 60cm

Length 114cm

AND

– Any items of a personal nature for use during the flight, such as a small Handbag, small Camera, Overcoat, Infants Food, Toiletries, etc.

– The total weight of each passengers' cabin baggage must not exceed 4kg.

Items which exceed these limitations must be checked in and carried in the aircraft hold.

Checked Baggage.

In addition to Cabin Baggage, each ticket holder travelling within Australia either solely or in conjunction with Ansett Airlines, Air N.S.W., Ansett N.T. or Ansett W.A. is entitled to the following free baggage allowances, provided the total linear dimensions (i.e. length plus width plus depth) of EACH piece does not exceed 140cm and/or a weight of 30kg. –

Premier Class Passengers: 3 Pieces

Executive Class Passengers: 2 Pieces

Golden Wing Passengers: 2 Pieces

Each Other Passenger: 1 Piece

Baggage allowances on airlines other than those mentioned may vary; details are available on application.

Each additional piece of baggage, or baggage which exceeds the maximum linear dimensions will be charged for at the published excess baggage rate.

Any single item of baggage which exceeds 30kg in weight, cannot be accepted as passenger baggage and must be consigned as Air Freight.

Passengers using Ansett services to connect with an overseas air journey are entitled to a similar baggage allowance as published by the International Airline.

All baggage should be labelled both inside and outside and locked. Items of value should be carried on your person or in Cabin Baggage.

For safety reasons, it is not permissible to carry in baggage, or by hand, any goods of a flammable, explosive or potentially dangerous nature.

If you require additional information please consult with an Ansett Travel Centre.

Insurance.

Personal accident and baggage insurance cover is available if required at a nominal charge.

Details may be obtained on application at Baggage check-in locations.

Important Notice

In accordance with Australian Government Regulations, smoking is NOT permitted on Australian domestic flights.
